

he never believed the assassination "was the work of man."

PAPER SAYS SHAW PLANNED TO MOVE

LONDON (UPI)—A British newspaper reported today that Clay L. Shaw, a central figure in the New Orleans investigation into the assassination of President John J. Kennedy, planned Shaw's reported plans to move to England next month.

The Daily Mail, a mass circulation Conservative daily, said Shaw was well known in London community and had once dined with late Sir Winston Churchill.

Shaw visited London

couple of months ago" and

interested in buying plays in England and in the New Orleans investigation into the assassination of Pres.

The Mail did not elaborate on cent John J. Kennedy, planned Shaw's reported plans to move to move to England next month.